

Robert G. (Bob) Woodward
Retired Partner
King & Spalding

Bio Bob Woodward is a retired partner of the law firm of King & Spalding LLP in Atlanta, Georgia, where he specialized in tax matters from 1975-81 and 1984-2010. During his career at King & Spalding,

Bob was chair of the Tax Practice Group and was a member of the firm's Policy Committee, Partner Compensation Committee, and Associate Evaluation Committee.

From 1981-84, Bob served in the Office of Tax Legislative Counsel of the U.S. Treasury Department. He held the positions of Tax Legislative Counsel (leading a staff of approximately 20 tax attorneys) in 1983-84 and Associate Tax Legislative Counsel in 1982-83.

During his legal career, Bob was an active member of the ABA Tax Section and served as chair of the Tax Section's Corporate Tax Committee. He was a trustee of the Georgia Federal Tax Conference and has been a frequent speaker at numerous tax seminars.

Bob currently is a member of the boards of directors of Atlanta Shakespeare Company and The Atlanta Opera and is a member of the advisory board of Emory Winship Cancer Institute. He is a member of All Saints' Episcopal Church in Atlanta and has served as a member of the vestry, and currently is chair of the endowment committee. He previously has served as board chair of The Schenck School for dyslexic children in Atlanta. Bob is a member of Capital City Club in Atlanta, where he previously has served as a board member, and Yale Club of New York City.

Bob received a B.A. degree in 1971 from Washington and Lee University, magna cum laude (honors with exceptional distinction in English). At W&L he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Sigma Society. He received a J.D. degree from Yale Law School in 1975, where he was a member of Yale Law Journal.

Bob is an Atlanta native and has been married since 1972 to Catherine (Cappa) Eagles Woodward. Bob and Cappa are proud to be parents of three children and grandparents of six grandchildren.