

Christopher Tassy

Owner & Entrepreneur
Ella B. Candles

Christopher Tassy "Tassy" has lived in Charlotte since 1999 with his wife Julie, daughters Harper and Ella. Harper is presently a freshman at Appalachian State and Ella is a senior at Providence High School.

Julie and Christopher own and operate Ella B. Candles, a manufacturer, which produces 100% pure soy, hand-poured in Charlotte, candles and partners with retailers across the country to create personalized gifts and home fragrance products.

Prior to 2011, Christopher was with IBM servicing Bank of America internationally. He has over 20 years of sales experience.

Tassy is originally from Grand Island, NY, studied at Messiah College for his BS in Biology and Canisius College for his Masters of Education in Secondary Education.

There is no question he loves Jesus, in his imperfection and daily strives to be a man of God.
